

HYBRIDPACKAGING – UNLEASH THE VOID AUDIOCASSETTE

Around 30 minutes of breathtaking Numbcore

Hybridpackaging is a performance duo from the Netherlands. Their actions are about colonising time and space and fill in both with a cartoonesque, yet relaxed sequence of actions, often based on (dutch) historical events. The abstraction of these stories is complete. Hybridpackaging rather works in an atmosphere, they're not narrators. Absurd magnification, cutting and associating is the work method.

Sound and the visual are unlayered, keeping both clear and isolated, preventing a too "romantic" focus on drama and musicality.

Barebonity, wrapped in time and decisions.

Remember, it's all about filling the space, hang around and the endurance of both the performers as the possible audience.

Hybridpackaging fucks up the classic parameters of brutality and softness.
